

INSTITUTO GOBERNANZA Y SOCIEDAD

Abril 2020 – COVID 19

MATERIALES DE INTERÉS

The COVID-19 Crisis and Its Aftermath: Corporate Governance Implications and Policy Challenges

24-Hour Global Webinar – April 16, 2020

It is already clear that the COVID-19 pandemic will have dire economic consequences, and collective thought is being applied to what policies can better ensure societies' resilience and their quick and dynamic recovery once the crisis is over. This global webinar convened scholars, practitioners and policymakers with the aim of advancing the decision-making process.

Ver video

Leer más

ecgi

European Corporate Governance Institute

Extreme times. Extreme Measures: Pandemic Resistant Corporate Law

Luca Enriques. Professor of Corporate Law

These are exceptional times. Almost everywhere, policymakers are taking exceptional measures. Most of these measures are in the domains of public health, public finance and public law...

Leer más

ecgi

European Corporate Governance Institute

The age of ESG

Jessica Strine, Marck Lindsay y Robet Main. Sustainable Governacne Partners

Among the major developments in investment management over the past decade, the dawn of the Age of ESG—environmental, social, and governance factors—represents a true paradigm shift in the relationships between public companies and their investors...

Leer más

The ESG premium: New perspectives on value and performance

Witold Henisz, Tim Koller, and Robin Nuttal. McKinsey Quarterly

A majority of surveyed executives and investment professionals (57 percent) agree that ESG programs create shareholder value...

Leer más

McKinsey
& Company

¿Quieres saber más?

ESG Shareholder Engagement and Downside Risk
April 2020. Andreas G.F. Hoepner. University College Dublin

