

Do ESG Mutual Funds Deliver on Their Promises?

Quinn Curtis (University of Virginia), Jil E. Fisch (University of Pennsylvania)

ESG investing is growing explosively, and the interest in ESG investing by retail investors continues to increase. A substantial proportion of retail ESG investing occurs through ESG mutual funds. The number of ESG mutual funds, and the assets they hold have each doubled in the past three years, and the COVID-19 pandemic has done nothing to slow this trend. But does this rapidly growing sector of the investment industry actually deliver investment exposure to...

Leer más

“El IGS se propone acelerar el proceso de adecuación de la praxis de gobernanza a las cambiantes necesidades de la sociedad”

Key Corporate Governance Issues at Mid-Year 2021

Martin Lipton, Steven A. Rosenblum, Karessa L. Cain

Last year, we did a mid-year edition of our annual Thoughts for Boards of Directors to highlight key issues and considerations in managing the challenging business environment and profound upheaval caused by the pandemic. Many of these issues are still top-of-mind...

Leer más

The Future of GRC [webinar]

July 15, 2021, 11 am EDT | 4pm BST

Creating Value by Bringing Risk, Audit and Compliance into the Boardroom. In this webinar, a panel of GRC leaders share insights into how risk, compliance and audit can work more closely with the board to ensure alignment on integrated GRC initiatives –.

Leer más

Leading in Wicked Times: A Shift to Inquiry, Humility, and Fairness

Insead Corporate Governance

Humanity is facing an increasing number of wicked problems. The COVID pandemic is a telling example. Wicked problems are novel, complex, without a single “right” answer. They provide an ultimate test of leadership...

Leer más

Introducing the “Technergy” ESG Reporting Strategy

Dan Romito, Pickering Energy Partners

Across the existing spectrum of ESG ratings, guidelines, and frameworks, higher quality environmental scores are commonly associated with technology companies while lower relative scores are typically linked to energy companies. This is not necessarily a novel statement, but...

Leer más

The Rise of Bankruptcy Directors

Jared A. Elias (USC Hasting Law), Ehud Kamar (Tel Aviv University)

In this Article, we use hand-collected data to shed light on a troubling innovation in bankruptcy practice. We show that distressed companies, especially those controlled by private-equity sponsors, often now prepare for a Chapter...

Leer más

Which Firms Require More Governance? Evidence from Mutual Funds Revealed Preferences

Irene Yi, University of Toronto

I elicit funds’ revealed preferences by studying the differences in their votes on the same issue across their portfolio firms’ shareholder proposals, and develop funds’ preference rankings by implementing the...

Leer más

